Offertory Carols Each offertory, from today through Christmas, will be a Piano/Organ arrangement of a carol from our hymn-book. Today's carol is "Twas in the Moon of Wintertime", a Huron carol well known in Canada.. It was written in the native Huron language in 1643 and set to the music of a 16th century French carol. Brice Smith will sing the first verse of the English version, written in 1926, for you today.
