YEAR OF JUBILEE! RELAX! GOD HAS THIS...

“Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants.

The fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you. ”

(Leviticus 25:10 NIV)

Pastor's Corner - Is there anyone else who is pleasantly surprised when Facebook Memories pop-up in their news feed (to see your memories, click Memories on the left side of FB news feed)? My heart stirs when pictures and posts of my family appear from two, three, six, or even eleven years ago (the panoramic header was taken seven years ago from my brother's back porch in Superior, Montana). Facebook reminds me of the experiencing that have shaped my life like digging buckets of potatoes (Red Russets, Yukon golds, and Kennebec); harvesting, pickling, and preserving vegetables and herbs; holiday celebrations, trips to Yellowstone and Montana; catching my first cut-throat trout; dancing at the Greek restaurant; and picking huckleberries with my brother. The FB Memories help me remember positive times in my life since I am prone to forget or focus on what can be adapted and perfected instead of what is.

A memory which has flashed this summer has been my Sabbatical in 2012 (sorry if you are tired of hearing about England). A sabbatical is “a period of paid leave granted to university teachers, clergy, or other workers for study or travel, traditionally one year for every seven years worked.” My family and I were blessed to spend eight-weeks together in Europe plus four weeks in the US to “rest, renew, and reconnect as a family” thanks to the Lilly Endowment Inc. and my congregation.

It was a game-changer for me, specifically when Macy spoke truth into my life. She said, “Dad, I’ve seen you more the last two weeks than I have seen you all my life!” At that moment I decided to shift my focus from work to building stronger relationships with my wife and kids. We made major changes in our lives so we could have more time together as a family. The sabbatical taught me to enjoy the gift of time - even times to rest!

Today, there is a lot of talk in religious circles that our world needs “rest, renewal, and time to reconnect with family.” Americans are burned-out, exhausted, stressed, and (continued) at their wits ends. Researchers and scientists do not need to tell us what we already know: We are exhausted! All of us need a break— an extended vacation. We all need time to rest!

The good news is It's a Sabbatical Year! In the book of Leviticus, God told Moses to set aside one year of rest for every seven (where academia developed the idea of the sabbatical). This was similar to God's command to set aside one day every seven for the Sabbath. God's people were to designate every fiftieth year (7 sabbatical years or 7 x 7), as an entire year of rest. God said, "Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. The fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you" (Leviticus 25:10 NIV). The Lord gave His people a priceless gift: unplanned time!

During this fiftieth year, no work was to be accomplished, no crops were to be planted, no grapes were to be harvested; everyone and everything (including the animals and the land) were to enjoy an extended time of rest. Old Testament scholars tell us this practice didn't happen very often (last celebrated hundred of years before the destruction of the Second Temple). Economies, families, and societies were not able to plan or sustain an entire year with no buying, selling, productivity, or taxes. Today, religious leaders are asking if God is calling (or even causing) the world to rest. Has the Lord eliminated all of our programs, activities, sports, and delayed the start of school so we could enjoy an extended time to "cease work or movement in order to relax, refresh oneself, or recover strength"? I know there are plenty of people who want things to go back to often means "hectic, fast-paced, and task-focused. I know, however, if we give up this time of sabbath rest, we will long for it again. So, don't give up this gracious gift!

I know it is a hard time to live but I pray we will try to enjoy it! It took me ten days to stop thinking about work in 2012 (Yes, I kept track). We were enjoying England but my mind was still back at work, worrying about everything that needed to get done. When I finally stopped striving and relaxed - slept-in and took a long nap - I discovered the space and time my heart, mind, and body desperately needed! Then I learned to reconnect with my family. We also found that our best experiences were times when we did the unplanned and were unstructured.

So, blow the trumpet, take a deep breath, go on a long walk with family or friend, lay down the textbooks, stop making work the center of your life, enjoy some time sleeping in the porch swing (safely!), and give thanks for this sabbatical, joyful, Jubilee rest. I am certain God can speak truth into our lives, and this experience can be a game-changer! ~ Blessings of Rest!

BIBLE STUDIES – Join one or more of our free studies which are open to the public.

"Gospel of Matthew" - Pastor leads a Bible Study on Wednesdays IN-PERSON at 10:30 AM, Holmer Hall, and ONLINE at 6:30 PM via ZOOM (see email for Meeting ID number and Password).

Women's Bible Study is held on Tuesdays at 4:00 pm online (via Zoom). Call Rexanne if you would like to participate in this study.

OUR CHURCH FINANCES - Your second quarter of giving statement is available to be picked up at the church. We print them each quarter so you can check accuracy but also so you can reflect on how you're supporting our church. The statements will be mailed to those who can't stop by. This second quarter has been a challenge for our church family as we support our church even though we're not always able to attend the services.

We are halfway through our budget year. Our income for June was $15,316.00. The total for the year to date is $105,596.06 or 44.5%

Our expenses for June totaled $18,164.23. The total for the year to date is $121,173.66 or 46.05%

Our net income to date is -$42,694.78. Keep in mind that even though our net income is a negative, our balance sheet shows $39,243.44 in our checking account. Our general checking account has Capital Campaign funds of $26,602.18 that haven't been transferred to the building fund account. Also, there are $4,809.26 of Youth Funds, $2,600 in Outreach and $3,221.81 in Baby Closet that are also in our checking account.

The $23,500 from Capital Federal Bank for the CARES / Paycheck Protection Program was moved out of Capital Federal into our general fund at US Bank to help pay for salaries and utilities. Only $874.11 remains to be used. We can be thankful for this federal program that we qualified for during this pandemic. Like many churches, it helped us through tough times when people weren't working and we were unable to have onsite church activities.

Let me know if you have any questions. Thanks.

Nancy Lindberg, Treasurer
