FROM PASTOR'S PEN: DISTRICT COORDINATORS

The Apostles said, "Brothers and sisters,... we will turn this responsibility over to them and will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word." Acts 6:3-4 (NIV)

We broke the ceiling - not literally, the plaster is fine
but we reach a new record in worship attendance: 115 persons in the Sanctuary on Easter morning for the Celebration Service. God is cause the church to grow with more Jesus followers. Praise the Lord!

In the early church, as recorded in Acts 6, the church grew rapidly after Jesus' resurrection, the apostles were faced with a beautiful challenge: the community was growing! With that growth came increasing needs—especially among the widows and vulnerable. The apostles wisely responded by appointing trusted individuals to help them care for the people, allowing everyone to be served well and no one to be overlooked. They realized that one person could not do it all. The church needed gifted servants in every area working together from a common purpose: Love!

Inspired by this biblical model, I'm thrilled to introduce a new initiative: Our District Coordinator Ministry.

The Church Council and I have divided our families roster into districts based on zip codes, and assigned a District Coordinator to each area. These coordinators are spiritual leaders called
to help provide better,
direct communication,
prayer support, and spiritual care in their assigned district, as well as help us
connect with our guests and visitors.

A PLACE TO BELONG, BELIEVE, and BE INVOLVED

Pastor's Pen

Their role echoes the ministry described in Acts 6: to ensure the needs of the community are not neglected, while also supporting the work of teaching, preaching, and prayer.

In the coming weeks, your District Coordinator will be reaching out to introduce themselves if they have not done so already and share their contact information. They are here to:

- ◇ Share urgent information and prayer updates from the Church
- ◇ Offer Christian support and encouragement
- ◇ Stay in touch and listen to your concerns
- ◇ Help foster deeper community in your area

This is not a replacement for the role of our pastors or deacons—it's an extension of it. Just as the early church grew stronger by sharing responsibility, we believe this model will help us grow in both number and love.

I have actually decided to conclude my service on the Board of International Ministries to focus more time and energy at the church and in the neighborhood. Rexanne and I still feel called to service this beloved community!

Please welcome your District Coordinator with open arms when they reach out. And keep this ministry in your prayers, asking God to bless the connections and conversations that will happen through it. We are one Body with many parts—and each part matters deeply. You need Us! We need You! You BELONG here!

Blessings in Christ's love and service, Pastor Ivan+

Getting to Know Our Church Friends

Our Friends story this month features one of our newer families to join our church, Shawn and Jennifer Emery. They live on Fillmore just down the street from the church and their son, Nicholas, has been attending WWW for several years. They bring new joy and enthusiasm to our congregation. We can see Shawn some Sundays playing his guitar with our praise band and Jennifer is busy working with some of the younger children. On Easter during the children's sermon Jennifer helped the kids explain their project on Jesus during the week leading up to his crucifixion.

Jennifer was born in Topeka. She was an only child to Lola and George Jack. Her mom, Lola, was a Certified Nursing Aide (CNA) at the Kansas Neurological Institute (KNI) while in Topeka and later a CNA in a nursing home in Springfield, Missouri. Her dad, George, was a lifelong mechanic adopting Jennifer when she was nine years old. Jennifer and her parents attended Crestview Methodist Church and later Highland Park United Methodist Church when she was growing up.

Jennifer was involved in journalism throughout high school and graduating in 1990 from Highland Park. She enjoyed not only taking pictures but also picture developing and creating layouts for the school newspaper. She also wrote articles for the paper.

Jennifer's mom taught her that she had to have perfect grades in school and she lived up to that through high school. But, when she started Highland Community College studying journalism, she realized she couldn't be the A+ student she had been so she quit and moved back to Topeka.

Shawn was also born in Topeka and is three years older than Jennifer. They met when they were teenagers. Shawn told me the story of meeting Jennifer at a party and when she was thirsty and wanted to get a soda, she went looking for someone with a car to take her to get something. He had a car so he offered to take her only to have her shut his fingers in the car door as they were getting in. Ouch! But that must have done the trick because they started dating and when she came back to Topeka after only one semester of college, they were married in the East Side Baptist Church in June 1991.

Shawn was born to Ron and Sandy Emery. His dad, Ron, was a printer and his mom, Sandy, worked with computers at Blue Cross and Blue Shield. Shawn has one sister, Angel Emery. They grew up going to the East Side Baptist Church and he was baptized around the age of 12.

Shawn graduated in 1987 from Shawnee Heights High School. His interests in high school were music and track. He said he didn't like running but enjoyed throwing the discus and shot put. His love of music started when he was 14 and by the age of 20 led him to be part of a 4-man band named My Own World (MOW) playing the guitar and singing.

Getting to Know Our Church Friends

They were a pop rock band playing alternative music in venues in Kansas City, Lawrence and Topeka. Perhaps you heard them play back in the day?

During high school and after they were married, Jennifer had several waitressing jobs and then went to work at J.M. Bauersfeld's. Out of high school Shawn worked at Hall Commercial Printing. It was during this time they had their first child, Destiny, in 1998. After 14 years working for Hall Printing, they decided they wanted a change so Shawn found a printing job in Arizona. They had another change by having their second child, Brendon, in 2001, and Jennifer worked at the Safeway Corporate Office doing payroll. After three years they became homesick and decided to move back to Topeka, buying their home at 308 Fillmore, just across from West Side Baptist Church. Shawn started working at Hobby Lobby as assistant manager. Jennifer went back working for Bauersfeld's and then started up her own home day care when Bauersfeld's closed. Shawn also studied at Washburn and got a Liberal Arts Degree.

Later, they moved to Manhattan where Shawn became co-manager of Hobby Lobby and Jennifer worked at Stone Creek Family Physicians as a receptionist. Then Shawn had the opportunity to become store manager of the Hobby Lobby in Olathe. They moved back to their home in Topeka with Jennifer driving to Manhattan and Shawn to Olathe. Then, Nicholas was born, Jennifer's mom got cancer and, along with the stress of being a new store manager, Shawn said he "hit his threshold and came running home". Shawn started his own lawn care business and has several people working for him. They mow, do landscaping, build flower beds and whatever is needed. In winter, he does snow removal and Door Dash. After being tired of driving back and forth to Manhattan, Jennifer opened a day care center in Topeka but it closed in 2020 due to Covid. She then taught pre-k at St. Matthews Catholic Church and currently works at Tallgrass General Surgery and Bariatrics as a receptionist.

Shawn and Jennifer have been married for 34 years this June. Their daughter, Destiny, is married and lives in Rhode Island but will be moving soon to Colorado Springs. She serves in the U.S. Army, taking after Jennifer's father who also served in the army. Their son, Brendon, is studying IT at Washburn University and son, Nicholas, is a 7th grader at Robinson Middle School.

When Jennifer was driving back and forth to Manhattan she started listening to k-love radio and it helped her "turn to God." She loves working in the yard and listening to Christian music as she works. Over the years Shawn and Jennifer have attended a few churches and their children have on occasion attended youth groups at West Side. But about 1 ½ years ago they decided to walk across the street and try our church service. Jennifer was wanting a welcoming church with a pastor who was also a good Bible teacher and she believes she has found that at West Side. Nicholas was baptized last year at West Side Baptist. We welcome their family and are glad they walked across the street!
